I do not have any suggestions for improvement. The instructor is very enthusciastic about her work. as well as ours. It makes for a good learning environment.

Dr. Somers-Willett is very knowledgable about the course and presents material in both an intellectual and engaging way. Her enthusiasm and knowledge are great assetts to the MSU English department. The course is manageable yet still challenges me.

Professor Somers-Willett is doing a great job with keeping the class engaging and productive. I especially commend her for the way she incorporates the needs of the few disabled students we have seamlessly into class. I would recommend her strongly.

We've done a lot of reading to help integrate concepts but I feel we've done more reading than writing. It would also be helpful to present material we've written to the class on a regular basis, and we've yet to do that.

I really like her class so far.
We get to do a lot of writing.
We haven't really done test or assign that involved her grading or feedback. We are beginning the process now with our workshops.

I just wished we were able to do drama. b/c thats what I really wanted to do in this class.

I loved the class, I learned a lot.
I think Prof S-W did or is doing a wonderful job. She great, easy to understand and explain class work fully, We do our work, and have fun doing it

Command of and knowledge in this course is very strong, but would be more helpful if she specified the format for writing essays, papers, etc. Did not say whether the papers should be double spaced, standard font, etc.

Dr. Somers-Willet knows the writing process very well, and has also extensive knowledge of the different genres. Her classes are pleasing as well as engaging. The textbook used/chosen for the course also exemplifies the course's objectives and content exceptionally.

I look forward to the rest of this semester in this course.
