Dr Susan has been a wonderful professor. She keeps things simple and has a real grasp on students' limitations and strengths. She has always been available for extra help because she cares we do well.

I liked how she integrated media into the class and used audio, video and Blackboard to give us articles.

Class was organized and productive.

Dr Somers-Willett provided every opportunity for everyone in the class to succeed. There were critical readings, assigned in addition to literature, which is imperative & helpful for the understanding of the coursework. By making herself available for us, we ~~could~~ recieved aid in all of our assignments. My only criticism, which is ~~may~~ impacted by the students in class, was to focus more on the readings and keep discussion geared towards course materials. Other than that, Dr Somers Willett is an amazing educator.

I feel that the paper topics presented were quite vague, without defined specificity. However, the grades were given for an exact idea basically topic was confusing and undefined and grades were given specifically
